

Summit on Livable Communities: Freedom in Mobility

Presented by: Naomi Armenta

March 29, 2018

Where are Bay Area seniors going?

- They are going to medical appointments, grocery shopping, and some recreational opportunities.
- They would like to be able to go out more on evenings and/or weekends.
- They would like more options for transportation within the same day.
- They would like to go to areas they currently have difficulty going to.

Why do we always talk about paratransit?

- What is paratransit?
- Follow the trips, follow the money
- Sustainable funding
- Mobility Management

What can you do with sustainable funding?

- Fremont/Tri-City Programs
 - Southern Alameda County
- Began with city-based programs
 - Door to Door
 - Group trips
- Primary sponsor for Tri-City programs
 - Taxi voucher program
 - Travel training
 - Volunteer Driver programs (operated by non-profits)

What else can you do with sustainable funding?

- Even more innovative programs
 - Established satellite location for ADA paratransit certifications
 - Issue Senior Clipper cards
 - Tri-City Mobility Management Program
 - Potential Lyft pilot (summer)

What can you do first?

- Best practices
 - Communication between transit, city/county, non-profits and advocates
 - Mobility management champions
 - Summits
- Resources
 - National Aging and Disability Transportation Center (NADTC)
 - National Center for Mobility Management
 - Easter Seals Project Action Consulting

Thank You!
